

Position: Arthrex Surgical Sales Consultant

Job Description: The Arthrex Surgical Sales Consultant will be responsible for all aspects of sales in the territory for the Arthrex family of products including but not limited to the market leading knee, shoulder and capital family of products. These products are recognized, as being the most innovative in the Orthopedic industry. There will also be a biologic line of autograft and allograft products to market.

The position requires the ability to assimilate and learn a high level of technical information, anatomy and indications as it relates to surgery and procedures. Sales Consultant will spend the majority of time in surgery interacting with both staff and surgeons. Must have good time management skills and ability to manage personal surgical equipment and inventory.

Required Skills: B.S Degree or equivalent mandatory 2 years experience in Medical Sales (Orthopedic experience will be given more consideration)
Background in sports, sports medicine or competition preferred
Great communication skills and time management experience
Ability to maintain inventory of consigned products
Knowledge and background of Human Anatomy
Competent in basic windows based operating system (MS Word, Powerpoint, Excel, Email, etc.) Position Type: Full Time, typically more than 40 hours per week and will include some weekend call. Relocations will not be considered

Job Location:

California: Bakersfield, Modesto and Palo Alto

Montana: Great Falls and Billings

Oregon: Portland

Washington: Tri-Cities

Idaho: Boise

Please submit your resume to: jobs@pacmedical.com